And Now a Word from our Students

[Editor's Note: Our children like to give you their perspective on life at our HOINA homes from time to time. This month we feature some of the news items they chose to report to you.]

A Clever Little Girl

by J. Surya

One day, we learned that one small girl heard from our General Manager Mr. Anand that if she gets 25 points out of 25 points she will go to lunch with Mom. When her paper came, she had only 24½ out of 25. She took her paper and went to her teacher, "Where is mistake on my paper?" The teacher searched and could not find any mistake so the teacher changed her grade to 25. Now four girls have same mark, and Mom will take all four to lunch. That means ice cream treat for them.

HOINA's "little fellow," our Tiger, Sagar, with HOINA big sister, Kotaveni.

Little Fellow Makes Big Mess

In HOINA one boy's name is Sagar. We call him Tiger. Mom gave him this name. He is the smallest boy in our home. When he was eight months old, he came to HOINA. Now he is two years old. We all love Tiger. When our school day is over, we love to come home and play with Sagar. He always brings smile to us. He is very happy. One day, Tiger opened the drinking water tap and kept it running, when he went away. The water is flowing down everywhere. Every time, he does like this—opening the tap and going off. Every day the big girls are seeing this and asking to all the little children, "Who opened the tap?" But no one responds to that sister's question. One day Tiger do it again. Then the sister sees one day that Tiger got a laugh for some time. The big girls are thinking that Sagar is a heightless person [a small fellow]. That's why he does this naughty game.

Help Others: As promised last month, here is a photo of the finished mural that our girls built for our HOINA home. Our campus is decorated with mosaics in many buildings. Their encouraging messages add color and beauty to our campus. We are grateful that Cyclone Hud Hud didn't destroy any of these original artworks when it hit our campus last year.

One Sunday Moses Uncle meet our Mom, Darlene Large with his wife Emilie. They is from Africa. He sponsored us with oil and rice and presented a special gift to a little HOINA boy. ## Future Physician Joins HOINA

A new member of the HOINA family joined us in June. Lenka Susmitha was born on September 3, 2007. Her father worked as a truck driver. However, when she was three years old, he started suffering from the effects of being HIV positive. Susmitha's mother then ran off with another man. When the father was diagnosed with cancer he approached the village elders, and they recommended he bring his daughter to HOINA which he did.

Susmitha's favorite color is pink, and she likes elephants. Someday, she would like to be a doctor.

Would you consider helping this dear child attain her goals? Your $35 monthly sponsorship will provide necessities like food, clothing, and a loving home. She'll receive any medical care she needs and as much schooling as she can attain—hopefully, all the way to medical school!

Send your first monthly gift to our HOINA office with the coupon above, and our volunteers in Pennsylvania will send you her photo and an address where you can write to her. Your gifts make a bright future for a child who needs you.
